ONLINE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Fundamentals of People Management

Align Business Direction with Human Capital Strategies

OVERVIEW

In today’s Volatile, Uncertain, Complex, and Ambiguous (VUCA) world, organizations rely on leadership at all levels to grow, compete, succeed, and deliver exceptional customer value. Line managers are the face of the company to its employees, and in today’s rapidly changing business environment, their people management capability is crucial in keeping employees engaged and reassured, while ensuring that the organization’s human capital strategies are aligned with business direction.

This program will help line managers understand and execute their role in the employee life cycle as people managers. By attending the program, they will be able to effectively coach team members, align human capital strategies with business strategies, and cultivate employee engagement and commitment to the organization’s goals.
