Driving Sales Performance Online Program

Conquer changing Market Conditions with a High-Performing Sales Team

OVERVIEW

Today's markets are dynamic, characterized by increased competition, evolving customer expectations, pressure on margins, and omnichannel retailing. Sales management has become a challenge and a crucial resource for organizations to develop a competitive advantage. The profile of the sales force has also evolved, and the art of selling is moving from product selling to solution selling. Ensuring a high level of sales performance requires the development of new capabilities besides reassessing the capacities of the current salesforce. This program offers a collaborative learning environment focused on practical ways to improve sales force performance. The participants will be exposed to practice-proven principles, strategies, and tactics of sales management. The program will help them to manage some of the most challenging sales issues about the professional selling process, sales force design, talent development, compensation, and sales force effectiveness.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:
